

ASL THERAPIST JOB DESCRIPTION

Allies In Caring is a non-profit organization founded in 2012 by a CODA and SODA, Gallaudet alumni. Our team includes Deaf individuals who are fully committed to teamwork and empowerment to create a healthy and thriving Deaf community in New Jersey.

Allies In Caring is leading the South Jersey Deaf and Hard of Hearing Coalition, an initiative funded by an Inclusive Healthy Communities Grant from the Division of Disability Services, New Jersey Department of Human Services, which seeks to support, empower, and connect the Deaf and Hard of Hearing community in South Jersey. Additionally, we offer In-Home counseling, Outpatient counseling, Tele-health, Group Counseling, Psycho Education, ASL Classes, Navigation Services, Workforce Development etc.

We are committed to providing exceptional therapeutic services and to this end, our clinicians participate in supervision, case conferences, and on-going training.

This is an exciting position that incorporates interesting clinical work and the opportunity to help us develop our program to include prevention and wellness services for Deaf and Hard of Hearing individuals.

Responsibilities

- Provide individual, group, and family psychotherapy in different contexts: Videophone, home, school and at the office to a small caseload of children and adults.
- Supports the translation of the Allies In Caring's tenets into practice by leading the planning, implementation, and evaluation of training and development opportunities education to enhance the knowledge and skills of Deaf and Hard of Hearing clinicians and behavioral specialists.

Qualifications

- ASL fluent
- Experience providing clinical mental health services to Deaf and Hard of Hearing children and adults. Strong knowledge of the diverse linguistic, cultural, psychosocial, access and communication needs of Deaf and Hard of Hearing populations.
- LCSW, LPC, LMFT, LAC, LSW
- Master's or Doctoral Degree candidates in their last year are welcome to apply too.

Benefits

- Medical, Vision, 401(k), Dental, Life Insurance
- Paid vacation time, paid sick time, paid holidays
- Flexibility
- Opportunity to grow with our organization
- Support for your passion project

To apply, please send cover letter & resume to hr@alliesincaring.org Check our website www.alliesincaring.org and indicate why you want to work with Allies In Caring & Con-Vivir.