

Certificate Program in Social Emotional Arts (SEA) vs. Social Emotional Arts Toolkit Training (SEA-T) at a Glance

For information on upcoming online sessions and registration, please view our programs page.

	Certificate Program in Social Emotional Arts (SEA) Online Training	Social Emotional Arts Toolkit Online Training (SEA-T)
Admissions	Application required. No prerequisites required.	No application required; register directly on the website. No prerequisites required.
Curriculum Description	In addition to learning scripted activities in six art forms, trainees learn to develop and deliver their own program from start to finish—from identifying the needs of the community to be served to program evaluation.	Trainees learn to deliver scripted activities in four art forms, with guidelines for working with groups vs. individuals, different ages and abilities, and continued, independent use of the activities.
Capacity	25 trainees	50 trainees
Duration	16 live, online class sessions via Zoom over 9 weeks (over 5 weeks for the intensive offering)	4 live, online class sessions via Zoom over two days.
Total Hours	40-hour training	12.5-hour training
Times	Training sessions, on average, run from 9:00 am to 2:30 pm Pacific Time, and select sessions may end at 5:00pm. A 30-minute lunch break is included in each day of training.	9:00 am to 4:00 pm Pacific Time over two days, with 45-minute lunch breaks.
Curriculum Materials	Handouts will be provided.	Handouts will be provided, and an optional curriculum manual is available for purchase.
Certificate of Completion	All who complete the Certificate Program in Social Emotional Arts will receive a Certificate of Completion that reflects 40 total hours of specialized training. Trainees are required to adhere to our Expectations & Policies to receive the certificate.	All who complete the Social Emotional Arts Toolkit Training will receive a Certificate of Completion that reflects 12.5 total hours of specialized training.
Fee	$1,989	$239 (Early-Bird Fee); $259 (Regular Fee)